GRADUATE CORNER

Whether you are actively applying or simply exploring future opportunities, this is a great season to begin thinking about the job market. Taking time now to update your CV, draft application materials, and seek feedback from advisors or peers can make the process more manageable later. Recent graduates suggest preparing at least 2 months before applying, as the process of compiling materials can be quite a task, especially if you're also trying to finish up dissertation work.

Helpful sites include HigherEdJobs.com, the Chronicle of Higher Education (chronicle.com), Inside Higher Ed, and AERA Div K. AERA also has a Job Search area on their website too, as do AMTE and NCTM.
